A9home Developer Scheme

Advantage Six Ltd are keen to promote the development of RISC OS software. Often, developers are disadvantaged because they must pay to join a developer scheme.

The A9home developer scheme is different. We are offering developers £50 inc VAT off the price of a developer-issue machine, including RISC OS Adjust32 Preview, thus giving them a head-start in writing new and exciting applications for the RISC OS platform.

Developers may convert their machine over to a full retail machine when it becomes available.

How to join the A9home Developer Scheme

Please read the Developer Agreement overleaf. If you wish to join the A9home Developer Scheme, please fill in and sign both copies of the form below.

Remove both copies from the file and hand to an assistant, who will process your order and return one copy back to you for your reference. Alternatively telephone Advantage Six Ltd on 01706 848600 for details of how to complete paperwork after the Wakefield show.
